The premier monster truck of RC racing! Big Bear was the first of the 1:12 scale monsters, and it's still leaving all others in the dust...literally! Clocked at 15+ mph, Big Bear has the speed to pull out in front as well as the muscle to handle virtually any off-road course.

If you're thinking that this would be the perfect model for sharing with the kids and neighbors in the back yard, you're right! Heavy duty independent spring suspension and high-riding foot-long wheel base flatten out the terrain. Afraid of plowing into the apple tree? Don't be...the steel coil spring front bumper was made for unavoidable obstacles. Want to take on the world? The 7 gear differential and high torque Mabuchi "Black" RS-480 engine is ready when you are!

The Big Bear (Kit #M159RC4) is 14³/₄" long, 12" wide, and 9¹/₂" high. The manufacturer's list price is $99.95, but our one-time only price is

HUNTER

Versatile, track-proven, all action

For years the Hunter has been the vehicle to beat at off-road competitions. It's the most versatile and dependable of the 2WD racers and the perfect model for drivers just starting out. It's got three changeable pinion gear ratios: high torque when the course demands hill climbing, high speed for pedal-to-the-metal straightaways, or standard gear for the best of both worlds. Semi-pneumatic Goodyear tires are straight-ribbed up front to let you maneuver with rear knobbies for ground-gripping traction.

The 1:10 scale Hunter has independent double-wishbone front suspension, with swing arms in back and an adjustable oil damped mono-shock absorber. Power peels out from a Mabuchi RS540 motor, and the tough polycarbonate body is easy to paint and finish with a full set of colorful decals.

The Hunter (Kit #M159RC3) is 15" long, 9" wide, and 5" high. In stores you'd expect to pay at least $79.95, but you can land this trophy for only $69⁸⁸

GALAXY

One look at the roll cage and you know the Galaxy means business. It's the competition version of the Hunter and the chassis has been modified to reduce weight while providing durable protection from spins, spills, and collisions. Parts are high impact ABS plastic, steel, metal, and aluminum so its ready to out-muscle everyone else on the track.

But the Galaxy is more than just tough...the speed controller has been beefed up to better disperse heat build-up and boost performance. And the four wheel independent spring suspension holds the road better than any other 2WD car on the circuit.

The sky's the limit with Galaxy (Kit #M159RC6)!

It's 15" long, 9" wide, and 5" high. Is the price out of sight? No way! It was $89.95, now it's down to earth at $69⁸⁸

NINJA

For those who take the competition seriously!

The devastating Ninja is Japan's fastest 4WD RC car. Is it any wonder we named it after the most feared warrior of the orient? If you're not ashamed of demoralizing the competition, you'll love their reaction as you bring this fighter up to the line.

The Ninja's only purpose is performance, achieved with the most advanced RC racing technology. The Ninja features double wishbone independent suspension in both front and rear, dual differential/shaft drive system, aluminum heat sink cooling, adjustable oil-filled shocks, all packed under a sleek, black, teardrop body. The Mabuchi RS540S powerplant is the finishing touch that puts the Ninja front and center in RC racing today.

Ninja (Kit #M159RC11) is 16" long, 9" wide, and 6½" high. The manufacturer's list price is $169.95, but our summer spectacular price is an unbelievable $119⁸⁸

SAMURAI

The most honorable tradition of winning!

For the RC modeler who likes to stay with the proven performer, Samurai is the kit for you! This champion was the first RC model with the innovative, adjustable, center differential gear that gives you the responsive steering and razor sharp cornering that other models can't touch.

And true to its heritage, the Samurai is as tough as it is fast. High quality brass, steel, aluminum, and nylon fittings along with steel and brass gearbox joints, steel axle, and nylon bumpers and side guards keep this warrior in fighting trim. And we do mean trim...only 37 oz. including Mabuchi RS540 motor, mini-servos, and receiver.

The Samurai (Kit #M159RC10) is 15" long, 9" wide, and in 1:10 scale. Regularly $169.95, your price is $119⁸⁸
